

First Home Savings Accounts (FHSA), Registered Retirement Savings Plans (RRSP) and Tax Free Savings Accounts (TFSA) are three different types of savings accounts available in Canada, each with its own unique features and tax implications. Here's an overview of the key differences between them:

	FHSA ¹	RRSP ²	TFSA ³
What kind of savings account is it?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Home savings account 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Retirement savings account 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Savings account
Do I qualify to open an account?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Have not owned a home in the preceding four calendar years Be 18 years or older Canadian resident 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Have an income Be 71 years old or younger Canadian resident 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Have a valid SIN Be 18 years or older
What types of investments can I hold in this account?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> GICs Mutual Funds Savings deposits Stocks, bonds, ETFs, alternative assets such as real estate and mortgages (as part of Alitis Investment Funds) Cash 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> GICs Mutual Funds Savings deposits Stocks, bonds, ETFs, alternative assets such as real estate and mortgages (as part of Alitis Investment Funds) Cash 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> GICs Mutual Funds Savings deposits Stocks, bonds, ETFs, alternative assets such as real estate and mortgages (as part of Alitis Investment Funds) Cash
How does tax affect contributions?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tax deductible amount 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tax deductible to a certain limit 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Does not provide a tax deduction
How does tax affect withdrawals?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Money won't be taxed if withdrawn to purchase a qualifying home Tax-free income 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Money won't be taxed until it is withdrawn Tax-deferred income 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Money won't be taxed when withdrawn Tax-free income
When can I withdrawal my money?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are qualified to make a tax free withdrawal if you've already signed a contract to purchase a house Residing in the house you made a withdrawal for within a year of purchasing or constructing the house 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can make withdrawals anytime but they are taxable and withdraw rules vary depending on type of account and legislation As part of the Home Buyers Plan (HBP), you can withdraw up to $60,000 from your RRSP to use towards the purchase of a qualifying home 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can withdraw funds from your TFSA at any time without incurring taxes or penalties The withdrawn amount is also added back to your contribution room the following year
How much can I contribute?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can make contributions of $8,000 annually up to a lifetime total of $40,000 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 2025 RRSP limit is 18% of your 2024 "Earned Income" to a maximum of $32,490 (plus unused amounts from prior years) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contribution amount changes yearly and your TFSA contribution room grows each year 2025 contribution limit is $7,000 with the total limit of $102,000
How long can I keep the account open?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ends on the earliest of these events: the 15th anniversary of having the account opened, the year you turn 71 or the year after you make your first qualifying withdrawal from the account 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You must convert a RRSP to a RRIF by December 31 of the year that you turn 71 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You may keep your TFSA open as long as you live

We can help!

Whether your financial goals involve purchasing your first home, securing a comfortable retirement, or constructing a tax-efficient investment portfolio, our dedicated team of Portfolio Managers can provide you with expert guidance and personalized solutions. Our Portfolio Managers are knowledgeable in the differences of these accounts and the constantly evolving tax laws while taking the time to understand your unique financial situation. We are committed to delivering innovative solutions, thought-provoking advice, and exceptional service.

Disclaimers and Disclosures – Alitis Investment Counsel Inc. (“Alitis”)

This handout is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer or solicitation to buy or sell any securities discussed herein to anyone in any jurisdiction where such offer or solicitation would be prohibited. This handout contains links to third-party websites. Alitis is not responsible for the content of any third-party website or any linked content contained in a third-party website. Content contained on such third-party websites is not part of this handout and is not incorporated by reference into this handout. The information contained in this handout has been drawn from sources believed to be reliable but is not guaranteed to be accurate or complete. Alitis assumes no duty to update any information or opinion contained in this handout.

1. Government of Canada. (2024, January 18). First Home Savings Account (FHSA). <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/individuals/topics/first-home-savings-account.html>
2. Government of Canada. (2025, January 2). Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP). <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/individuals/topics/rrsps-related-plans/registered-retirement-savings-plan-rrsp.html>
3. Government of Canada. (2024, January 17). Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA), Guide for Individuals. <https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/forms-publications/publications/rc4466/tax-free-savings-account-tfsguide-individuals.html>